“We had our most successful dealer meeting to date,” said Scout Director of Sales & Marketing Alan Lang. “Our outstanding dealer network and their representatives work tirelessly to represent our Scout brand, and it’s an honor to award them for their successful efforts throughout the year. We’re proud to have them as part of our Scout family. Celebrating the 30-year history of our growing brand and its milestones, as well as debuting four new models to kick off the model year, made for an exciting, memorable event.”

Scout had numerous models on display, including the all-new 215 Dorado, 235 Dorado, 277 LXF, 330 LXF, and the 530 LXF.

Scout builds luxury sportfishing center console, dual console and inshore/bay boat models ranging from 17’ to 53’. Since its founding three decades ago, the company’s goal has been to manufacture the best-built boats in its distinctive sportfishing niches. Each Scout hull is a true original, as the in-house research and design team works closely with engineering to take concepts from blueprint to production more efficiently, growing the company’s world-class reputation for quality, strength, durability and value.
